

The first public sculpture of a black woman made by a black woman in the UK. This life-sized bronze statue of Henrietta Lacks, whose cancer cells changed the course of modern medicine, is outside Royal Fort House in Clifton.

Where are all the statues of women? Find out about important women in Bristol's history. A new project at Hannah More involving drama, writing and more, for parents and children working together after school Provisional dates are Thursdays 12th, 19th and 26th May 2022, 3.15-4.30.