

1. Below are some simple sentences. Add conjunctions to make them more interesting.

a) Winnie wanted a flying carpet

b) The carpet flew through the sky.

c) Winnie sat on her broom.

d) Wilbur jumped onto Winnie's shoulder.

e) Wilbur went to sleep.

Add your own verbs and adverbs.

2. Finish the sentences below. Include adverbs in each sentence.

a) _____, Winnie heard the doorbell...

b) The carpet _____ landed in...

c) Wilbur _____ climbed out...

d) Winnie _____ lay in the hammock...

e) Winnie _____ waved her wand...

3. Miss Malik has written some sentences about a book but she has not done a very good job of making them interesting. Add adjectives and replace the verb underlined in each sentence to make the sentence more exciting.

a) Winnie got a carpet for her birthday.

b) Winnie's carpet tipped over the pond.

c) Wilbur spent his morning going up trees and catching butterflies.

d) Winnie placed the carpet under the sun.

e) The flying carpet flew up into the sky.

Write a second sentence to follow on from the sentences given. Include adverbs, fronted adverbials and adjectives to make them more interesting.

Write a short story using the pictures below. Use lots of conjunctions, adjectives, verbs, adverbs and fronted adverbials to make the story exciting.

